

COOP STUDENT and / or INTERN
ENTRY LEVEL ENGINEERING / ENVIRONMENTAL / CONSTRUCTION TECHNICIAN

Reports to:

Assistant Project Manager / Project Engineer / Environmental Scientist

Position Summary:

Our Denville, New Jersey office is seeking a motivated/self-starting individual who possesses a professional image and strong work ethic to support a growing and fast-paced office environment.

The candidate will assist in engineering, environmental and construction functions for our wide range of projects. The position will include performing the following responsibilities and duties as assigned:

Engineering:

- Preparing engineering AutoCad plans and construction details
- Surveying and Topographic Mapping and Plans
- Stormwater design, Floodplain, Flood Hazard & Stream Studies
- Expert Reports, Studies and Contract Documents

Environmental:

- Environmental field sampling services of air, soils and groundwater
- Assisting with the preparation of environmental reports, studies & documents
- Oversight of monitoring well installations and soil borings

Construction:

- Removal and installation of underground and aboveground storage tank systems
- Piping and plumbing activities
- Assisting with Environmental Remediation of Impacted Soils and Groundwater
- Oversight and assistance with Site and General Building Construction

Requirements:

- Enrolled in an accredited Engineering or Civil / Environmental Engineering Program
- Familiarity with computer design software: AutoCad, Land Development, Three Dimensional Renderings, Microsoft Word, Excel and Power Point
- Ability and desire to work with team members in a positive manner on multiple project assignments

To Apply:

Please submit your resume via:

- Email: hr@entechgroupinc.com or
- Fax: 973.586.8663